Growing Your Heart for Lost People

Do your people have a heart for those who are far from God? The trend can be just the opposite: the value of evangelism often diminishes over time. Now you can take steps to overcome "evangelistic entropy" and expand your congregation's vision for lost and hurting people. Hear how a growing concern for God's people transformed the life and ministry of former NFL lineman, Ricky Bolden.

Program Cost to non-Subscribers $95*

The Sanctifying Work of Grace

Session 3 of 4

Professor Steve Brown continues his teaching on the revolutionary nature of grace! There are those who say that the idea of radical grace is simply permission to sin. On the contrary, help your congregation discover the only path to sanctification that works: the path of grace. As the Apostle Paul said, "We are constrained by the love of Christ."

Solutions: Put on a Happy Face

Series 20: Secrets to the Good Life, 2nd of 8 weeks

Surprisingly, the ability to express sadness is one of the secrets to the good life. As kids we were told to be tough and to stop crying. Programmed "to put on a happy face", we often pretend that everything is okay, even when it's not. In this session, your community will learn a better way of living and handling life's difficulties.

Willow Creek's Group Life Conference: Ancient-Future Community

For the first 300 years, the church didn't have small groups — it was small groups! CCN invites pastor and small group leaders to join the Willow Creek Association Small Group Life Conference to explore how the early Church inspires and directs the future of small group ministry! In specially selected live and pre-recorded sessions, this conference provides an outstanding opportunity to refuel, equip, and connect small group leaders at every level throughout your entire church body.

The Case for The Real Jesus

From college classrooms to best selling books, the historic picture of Jesus is under intellectual onslaught. This fierce attack is confusing spiritual seekers and casting doubt among Christians — but can these radical new claims and revisionist theories stand up to sober scrutiny? Invite seekers, skeptics and believers to hear Lee Strobel's latest findings: A Journalist Investigates Current Attacks on the Identity of Christ.

Program Cost to non-Subscribers $95*
