

Leading from the Second Chair

Mike Bonem and Roger Patterson

VIA SATELLITE ON CCN

When both first and second chair leaders recognize the value of second chair leadership, the whole organization thrives!

In the new CCN seminar, a panel of second chair experts will explore the special paradoxes and opportunities of Leading from the Second Chair.

"First chair leaders will realize great benefits when they understand these paradoxes and release their second chairs to truly lead," says Mike Bonem, an expert in business strategy and a "Second Chair Leader" at the West University Baptist Church.

Full-time and volunteer church leaders will discover that successful second chair leadership embraces three paradoxes:

- Subordinate-leader: Second chair leaders rely on a healthy relationship with first chair leaders.
- Deep-wide: Second chair roles are narrow and deep, yet include an organization-wide perspective.
- Contentment-dreaming: Second chair leaders cultivate contentment as well as God-given dreams.

Gain the positive attitudes, skills and strategies to become leaders who not only survive but thrive in God's service!
