Nothing is more dangerous than a single compelling idea that is lived out.

And nothing is more harmless than lots of little ideas that are never applied.

When well-intentioned churches make the common mistake of bombarding people with too many little ideas, believers end up knowing far more than they can apply.

Join the team from Community Christian Church to learn how the Big Idea helps to grow a body of genuine Christ followers – who live out the mission of Jesus.

- Focus weekly discussions in families and small groups.
- Invite creative collaboration and maximizes missional impact.
- Energize a church staff and build unity among diverse ministries

Stem the tide of information overload: Discover the power of The Big Idea.

Who Should Attend:

- Pastors
- Church Staff and Board Members
- Ministry Leaders

Dave Ferguson and four friends from college launched Community Christian Church in the west suburbs of Chicago, a church passionate about "helping people find their way back to God." Community Christian Church has grown to more than five hundred leaders with more than 4,400 people in attendance at eight sites every weekend. Dave is co-author of The Big Idea.

Eric Bramlett Creative Arts Director, Community Christian Church and co-author of The Big Idea.

Jon Ferguson Co-founder and Teaching Pastor, Community Christian Church and co-author of The Big Idea.
