There's all your great planning... and then there's what really happens!

Too often children's ministry leaders are surprised by the difference between their best laid plans and what actually happens on Sunday mornings.

According to experts, Dave Staal and Kerri Mahla, this is the result of an easy oversight: Leaders spend a lot of time thinking about their teaching or "circle" time and neglect the rest of the hour!

Join CCN to discover the key ingredients to planning a successful Sunday morning.

Kerri will address both the unique challenges and solutions to managing children's groups at different developmental stages, toddler through elementary school.

Learn helpful techniques for engaging your children throughout the entire hour!
Discover how to:

- Let playtime set the tone.
- Manage the expectations of children and teachers.
- Understand and meet the needs of your kids.

Make every minute count!

Who Should Attend:

- Children's Ministry Pastors, Leaders and Volunteers
