The future is now ... are you ready for it?

Many church leaders are stuck in the thoughts of the past. They believe these "truisms" about churches:

- If you build the perfect church they will come
- Growing your church will automatically make a difference in the community
- Better planning will get you where you want to go

Get ready for a CCN broadcast that will challenge your thinking. Church consultant and author Reggie McNeal debunks these and other assumptions in The Present Future.

Reggie believes that by changing the questions church leaders ask themselves about their congregations and their plans, they can approach the future with new eyes, new purpose, and new ideas.

You'll discover new realities for the church, including:

- Replacing church growth with kingdom growth
- Developing disciples instead of church members
- Focusing on spiritual formation rather than church programs
- Shifting from prediction and planning to preparation for challenges

The future is here!

Who Should Attend:

- Senior Pastors
