

You are invited to an exclusive training experience for pastors, youth leaders, children's ministers, educators, and other leaders in the faith community:

Narnia Outreach Event

...Movie Sneak Peek Behind the Scenes!

Via Satellite Only On

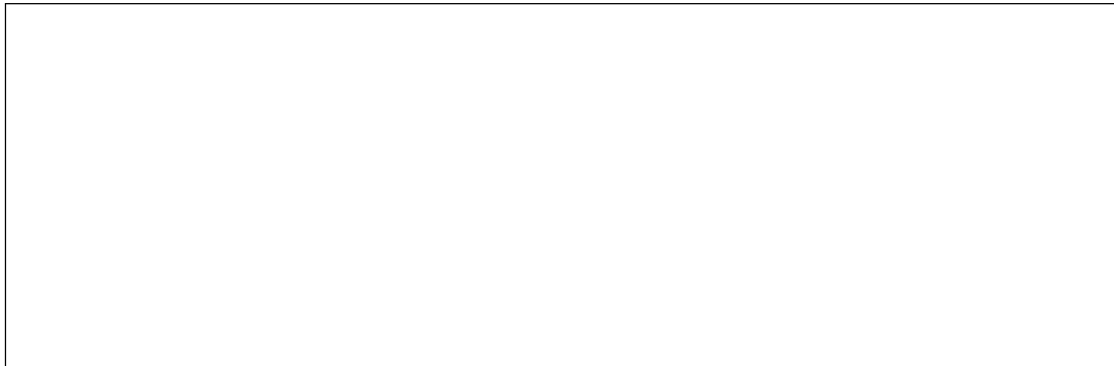

With Special Guests

Doug Gresham – Co-producer of the film and stepson of C.S. Lewis.

Micheal Flaherty – President of Walden Media, the Narnia film production company.

Steven Curtis Chapman – Singer, performing music from the "Inspired By" Narnia soundtrack.

Paul Lauer – Founder of Motive Entertainment, leading Faith & Family Narnia Outreach.

The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, now a major motion picture by Walt Disney Pictures and Walden Media, opens in theaters nationwide on December 9, 2005. The movie promises to be a remarkable story of action and adventure but most importantly, forgiveness and reconciliation.

Join the film's visionaries to learn how the movie's powerful themes make it an extraordinary outreach opportunity for your church and community!

- View exclusive movie clips!
- Find out how churches, schools and organizations across the country are using the film..
- Learn about the Narnia resources and materials available FREE of charge!

The views expressed herein do not represent those of Walt Disney Pictures, Walden Media, the C.S. Lewis Estate, or the filmmakers, but are rather the views of various organizations who have created these events specifically for leaders in the faith and family community. THE CHRONICLES OF NARNIA, NARNIA, and all book titles, characters and locales original thereto are trademarks of C.S. Lewis Pte Ltd. and are used with permission. Images and movie trailer © Disney/Walden.