The Law of Inspiration

- ◆ Growing churches concentrate considerable time, energy and resources into ensuring that the worship service, in its all aspects, is a spiritually transforming and motivating experience for those who attend
- ◆ Text – Acts 2:42-47

Objective of this Session: To teach and explain the importance of the church gathered and to instruct on specific practical ways to develop and enhance the worship service.

I. Major Teaching Points:

a. Exposition of Acts 2:42-46

- The model of the early church.
- The quality and consistency of the worship service has a significant impact on the local body's health and growth. (1 Corinthians 11)

II. Research: Regardless of the type of church (formal, informal, charismatic or non-charismatic, seeker-sensitive or non seeker-sensitive), the weekend service must be something people look forward to as an inspirational and motivating experience that moves their heart, mind, soul and spirit towards God. One of the highest correlations between growing churches is an inspiring worship service.

III. Practical Implementation:

a. Components of a quality worship service

- Authentic worship from the heart.
- The word is taught with clarity, application and relevance.
- There is cultural sensitivity to your target audience.

b. Specific suggestions for developing an inspirational worship service

c. How to honor the past but not be tied to the specifics and the expectations of people as you introduce new practices in the worship service.
