

Experiencing Jesus in Your Small Group

Part of the "Groups that Grow" Small Group Leadership Training Series

Bill Donahue

Via Satellite

A real encounter with Jesus Christ. It's the heart of small group ministry.

So, what does it look like to meet Christ in the small group setting? How can small group leaders effectively engage both believers and seekers in the exciting process of discovering the authentic Jesus?

Small group expert, Bill Donahue, continues the Groups That Grow series on CCN by offering small group leaders some practical steps for guiding their groups towards an experience of Jesus Himself.

In the CCN broadcast, Experiencing Jesus in Your Small Group, learn how to build a team of small group leaders who experience the unmatched joy of leading others into a real encounter with the living Christ.

Discover essential tools for:

- Helping your groups meet Jesus in Scripture
- Engaging in conversations about Jesus' life and teaching
- Connecting the stories in your groups with the story of Christ

Join us for this practical broadcast and help the small groups in your church become a life-transforming place to meet Jesus!

Who Should Attend:

- Senior Pastor
- Small Group Pastors
- Discipleship Pastors
- Small Group Leaders

Bill Donahue is the Executive Director of Small Group Ministries for the Willow Creek Association. He is the author of Leading Life-Changing Small Groups, and with Russ Robinson, the coauthor of The 7 Deadly Sins of Small Group Ministry, Building a Church of Small Groups, and Walking the Small Group Tightrope.

For more information contact:

Church Communication Network Toll-free: 800-321-6781
P.O. Box 1718 Fax: 650-745-0660
Mountain View, CA 94042-1718

www.ccn.tv