

WORSHIP IN TODAY'S CHURCH IS MUCH MORE THAN MUSIC!
Discover the kind of worship that transforms communities!

In this second annual event, pastors and worship teams will come together to gain powerful and practical insights into our most privileged calling: Worship of the living God! During these two great days, world-renown worship leaders, artists and pastors will expand your vision for worship in the church!

Day 1:
 Transforming Congregational Worship

Worship leaders and pastors will find the keys to transforming worship in these powerful sessions:

- Is This for You or For Me?
- Balance in Worship: Reverence vs. Freedom
- Developing A Common Vision Between Pastor and Worship Leader
- Living From Your Gifting Out
- Bridging The Culture Gap In Worship
- Worship Leading 101

Tommy Walker, recording artist, songwriter, and worship leader
Margaret Becker, multiple Dove-award winning recording artist
Floyd Ellsworth, worship leader and recording artist
Joel Engle, worship leader and recording artist
Jeff Deyo, founder of WorshipCity Ministries
Scotty Smith, senior pastor, Christ Community Church
Skip Heitzig (host), senior pastor, Ocean Hills Church

Day 2:
 Using Technology to Transform Worship

Pastors, worship leaders, and technical teams will explore the practical side of worship from each other's point of view. Learn how to:

- Create a partnership between the senior pastor, worship pastor, and technical team
- Build a team that understands the dynamics of relating together, while serving the church with excellence
- Integrate technology with worship
