

The Power of Vision

George Barna, Lon Solomon, John Jackson

Part of the Leadership Network Innovation Series

Live Via Satellite

"Where there is no vision, the people perish." (Proverbs 29:18)

Vision. It's one of those buzz-phrases around churches these days. Yet what exactly is vision? And how important is it?

According to George Barna, "Grasping God's vision for your ministry is definitely not an option. It is an absolute must."

Learn practical steps you can take to discover God's unique vision for you and ways you can share your vision with your congregation.

You will discover:

- What vision is ... and isn't
- How to know if you have vision ... or don't
- How you can gain vision
- How vision can make a difference in how you pursue ministry
- The myths Christian leaders have about vision
- How vision differs from mission

Who Should Attend:

- Senior Pastors
- Executive Pastors
- Elders, Board Members, Deacons
- Ministry Directors

George Barna is the president and founder of The Barna Group, a marketing research firm. He has written more than 30 books, including his latest, Think Like Jesus.

Lon Solomon is the senior pastor of McLean Bible Church in Virginia. The suburban Washington, D.C. church has weekend attendance of more than 8,000.

John Jackson is the senior pastor of Carson Valley Christian Center in Minden, Nevada and the president of VisionQuest Ministries.

For more information contact:

Church Communication Network Toll-free: 800-321-6781
P.O. Box 1718 Fax: 650-745-0660
Mountain View, CA 94042-1718

www.ccnonline.net